

A pixel art logo for a computer system. The logo is contained within a light gray rectangular frame. At the top of the frame, there is a row of 24 vertical brown bars of varying heights. On the left and right sides of the frame, there are brown rectangular blocks representing side panels. The text "POWERedge" is written in a pixelated font across the top of the frame, with "POWER" in gray and "edge" in a lighter gray. Below this, the text "REF" is written in a similar pixelated font, with "REF" in gray and "" in a lighter gray. The entire logo is set against a white background, which is itself set against a solid magenta background.
